Summer Celebration: 121st Campmeeting

A July 1944 article from the Woodburn Independent records Church of God Campmeetings as estimated at half a century old. That was 70 years ago. Transitioning from Campmeeting to Summer Celebration, the July 2014 event convened at the Warner Pacific College Campus July 20-23—tagged the 121st annual gathering.

The three-day celebration was packed with music, prayer, fellowship, snacks, and great speakers with good, challenging messages to the Church. Attendance was good, and once again the youth made their presence known, sitting together during evening services in a reserved section of McGuire.

Pastor Ken and Keli Oldham shared of life in Egypt, and spoke of loving the Church by exalting Jesus. Mt. Scott's Youth Pastor Aaron Walton emphasized hope—"stronger, always and more". Ben Sand, whose passion is outreach, spoke of looking for Jesus in our communities, where least expected; and Jenny Marble, scooter-free, used a bag of colorful gummy bear candies

Church Meetings Half Century Old

The Church of God will commemorate half a century of annual summer camp meetings when this year's series is held from July 20 to 30. "The grove where we hold the meetings may have been owned by the church longer than 50 years," it was stated yesterday by Rev H S Fulton, pastor of the local Church of God, "but as nearly as we can determine the series this summer will mark the 50th year the meetings have been held in this location." The grove is situated at the north edge of Woodburn, just east of the Southern Pacific tracks. There will be a special 50th anniversary celebration on Sunday, July 23. At this year's series Dr C E Brown of Anderson, Indiana, will be a special guest speaker. Rev and Mrs Sydney Rogers, missionaries recently returned from British East Africa, will speak at the missionary meetings. Rev Mack Caldwell of Long Beach, California, will be instructor in the leadership training class. There will be three general services daily.

Men's Advance: Extreme Camp Makeover

Men of the Church of God will check-in at 4 p.m. Friday, August 22, to enjoy dinner and some free time, as they kick off the 2014 Men's Advance. The weekend event will include devotions, sessions, projects and free time, and concludes Sunday morning following a time of communion and fellowship on the main deck.

The speaker for the event, Rev. Bruce Steffensen, holds a doctorate from George Fox University in Spiritual Formation and Leadership. Steffensen has served on staff with the Association of the Churches of God in Oregon and Southwest Washington, and as an adjunct professor at Warner Pacific College. He and his wife, Debi, planted New Life Christian Fellowship in Mariposa, CA, in 1994, where they served for 14 years before moving to Portland, OR, in 2008.

Cost for the weekend is $75 if pre-registered and postmarked by August 8, or $85 at the door. Make checks payable to Oregon Men of the Church of God, and send to Mark Gebler, 300 Nelson Lane, Gladstone, OR 97027. If questions, e-mail menofthechurchofgod@gmail.com.

to make her point about the Church: Holiness and perfection = Love God and neighbor. Meanwhile, kids experienced "Studio Go!" with Wade Winalot; and Youth, enjoying an extended 5-day event, took a trip to the beach Wednesday, leaving a noticeable gap in McGuire Hall seating. Pictures are worth 1,000 words. Enjoy!

Senior Moments

by Ruth Bissett, Salem, OR

Yes, we had some awesome senior moments at camp meeting (Summer Celebration)! I want to personally thank each one who was able to come and participate in any or all of the activities especially planned for you seniors!

More information will be coming in future issues of The Contact, but here is a brief run down on the events. On Monday, Martin Shrout, pastor of the Holliday Park Church of God, shared on "Sing an old hymn in a new way." He started with some of the history of music within the church. It was of interest to me that the all-time favorite Christmas song, Joy to the World with words by Isaac Watts, was not written as a Christmas song. Words were added at a later time that added the Christmas message. Based on Psalm 98, it was written referring to the Second Advent or the end of the ages. So, when you sing it, listen for words that express that message.

On Tuesday, Jenny Marble, Associate Pastor at Friendly Street Church of God in Eugene, spoke to us on the subject of "Why does God allow evil/ suffering in our world." From her own experience with the challenging Crohn's disease at a young age, her bottom line message to us is that God is our comforter in times of grief and suffering.

Wednesday started with Ellie Pierson-Sutter, former pastor of the Aloha Church of God, being vulnerable and sharing the many bumps and challenging experiences of her life. The topic she was assigned was "God Will See You Through." I will add that "God is seeing her through" and He will see each of us through so let Him lift you up.

Our next event on Wednesday was the "All Day Song and Dinner on the Grounds." This began with the Lighthouse Quartet blessing us with their inspiring music. There was a lot of hand clapping and foot stomping music! A few locals shared in the All Day Sing. Then there was the "Dinner on the Grounds" Over 60 people enjoyed this old fashioned picnic with chicken, potato salad, green beans, salad, rolls and old fashioned peach cobbler. Yum! Yum! Thank the Lord we planned an indoor picnic as it poured down rain!

I thank the Lord for each one who made these activities happen. You know who you are and God knows!

Here's a heads up! Next year the plan is for a Heavenly Event! I would invite any suggestions or input on this. Also, at least one of our topics next year will be the subject of heaven. I hope that this topic is of interest to you. We're all going there I trust so hopefully we can learn what the Bible says on the subject as opposed to what the world may be saying. "See" you next time!

Summer Camps Continue

Summer Camps at White Branch continue this month, with Senior High camp August 4-8. Introductory, Junior, Primary and Middle School Camps took place in July, with reports still coming in. A big THANKS to everyone who pitched in to make these memorable events! Pray that God will continue the good work begun in many lives touched at CWB.

Greetings from Tanna

To All My Dear COG Family Members,

I just wanted to thank you all for your love, support and prayers through all the 8 1/2 years at CWB. Wayne and I have and always will love. You mean so much to me.

My Mom and I are living in Camas, Wash. now. It is nice here. I do miss my camps and the kids.

It was a pleasure and honor to have loved and served you all.

The new managers, Leonard and Stacey Meyers, are great. They are very loving and doing a good job.

I left it full of reservations for the summer and they are doing fine. They also have fire fighters in now. Pray for them. This is not an easy task; lots of hard work. Mel is helping them. He is pretty special. His love for the camp is above and beyond.

You can drop me a line any of you, especially my kids: tannamiller11@gmail. Love to hear from you.

Remember my Mom, Helen Crenshaw in prayer. She is 89 years old, and has Chronic Kidney Disease and Alzheimer's. It is pretty rough. She amazes me. She is a trooper.

God Bless you all.
Love, Tanna Miller,
Retired Manager at CWB
