Senior Moments

by Ruth Bissett, Salem, OR

Greetings fellow seniors!

I was blessed to be able to attend the senior retreat at Cannon Beach Conference Center recently with 100 or so other seniors from the Church of God in Southwest Washington and Oregon. If you have not attended this retreat, you might want to watch for it next year, April 21-23, 2015. Anyone who has attended has words of praise for this event. We eat, fellowship, eat, listen to a special speaker, eat, relax or walk on the beach, have fun and eat. Did you get it? We eat. The food is always one of the highlights, as the staff does a great job of serving good food.

This year, Tom Dougherty of Boise, Idaho was the speaker. I want to share some notes from his sharing. His topic was spiritual refinement.

Spiritual Refinement:

•By Humor – From Scripture there is a time to weep, a time to laugh. Laughter lengthens life. Be alive in the spirit. Be alive in the spirit of God. Be more spontaneous. Be contagious.

•By Joy – I Peter 1:8b “.... You believe in Him and are filled with an inexpressible and glorious joy.” We have a choice to have joy. Celebrate is an important part of joy. We go to church to celebrate the joy of the Lord. We need to have a church full of joy. Enjoy life to the fullest. Spread the joy. Things won’t always be perfect. Don’t base your joy on circumstances. Plan times of joy.

•By Mission – Be in the world. We let the littlest things steal us out of our mission. Visualize your mission. See the big picture. Your mission is different than mine. Community is vital. Church is to breath hope into our lives. Follow the mission God has given you.

•By Prayer – We need to be faithful in prayer. I don’t know the future but I know who I can trust. Prayer changes things. I have to have prayer in my life. Have a strategy or plan. God always sees the big picture. Keep praying.

•By Song – Tom shared on several familiar hymns and their meaning and influence in our lives. Some of the hymns he shared were Blessed Assurance, He Lives, All Hail the Power of Jesus Name and Amazing Grace. Each of us have sung these songs for years, but I would challenge you to either read or sing these songs again and look for new lessons in the message.

I hope you are making plans to be at Summer Celebration (campmeeting). Last month I shared the program for camp meeting. I am excited to hear those who are sharing and especially hearing Lighthouse Quartet. Some have heard them recently, but they are worth hearing again and again. Hope to see you there!

“See” you next time.

President's Tea: Record Year

The 5th Annual President's Tea & Scholarship Auction was a tremendous success, as 220 guests gathered at Warner Pacific College to help meet the needs of under served and first generation college students. The President's Tea raised over $91,000 in scholarship funding for urban and diverse students in Portland through the Warner Pacific Act Six Leadership & Scholarship Initiative. The event featured both a silent and verbal auction, as well as a charity paddle raise.

Sarah Theborge, President Andrea Cook, and Act Six scholar Yesenia Delgado

Award winning author, Sarah Theborge was the afternoon's keynote speaker. Her memoir, "The Invisible Girls," was released in April 2013 and tells the story of her growing relationship with a family of Somali refugees, and the remarkable ways God used their lives to make His presence known to Sarah.

Act Six scholar Luwam Kahassay shares her story with guest, Dixie Samuels.

Raising a paddle to support Act Six scholars

The attendees also heard from special guest and Act Six scholar, Yesenia Delgado, '14. Yesenia shared her passion for investing and inspiring others to achieve greatness one day, just as Warner Pacific believed in her.

Thank you for your prayers and support surrounding this event, the College and our Act Six scholars are truly humbled and inspired by God's abundant provision!

WPC Honors Retiring Faculty

Stop by to view photos from their time at Warner Pacific, share your personal memories, and wish them well. The faculty honorees are Dr. John Fazio, Professor of Developmental Psychology; Dr. Lou Foltz, Professor of Educational Psychology; Sue Kopp, Director of Library Services and Associate Professor; and Phyllis Michael, Associate Professor of Human Development and Family Studies. Friday, May 9, 2014, 4-5 p.m., WPC Egtvedt 203 There is no cost to attend this event, but please contact Diane Minor at dminor@warnerpacific.edu or 503.517.1114 by May 2 if you plan to attend so that we can plan for refreshments.

Clock Ticks Down by Dr. Bruce Steffensen

As the clock ticks down on my time on staff with the district, I want to make the most of my last few E-Contact articles. I began wondering what might be the most important things I needed to say. I thought of a couple of things so I'm going to share them. I should issue a disclaimer. These are spoken out of my passion, so they probably won't be as eloquent or as well presented as they should be. I'm just going to say them—I don't know how else to do it. So here goes with the first one.

I'm deeply worried about the church.

I'm not just talking about the local church, or our district, or even the Church of God Reformation Movement, I'm talking about the church in general in the part of the world in which we live. The church in the western world is shrinking and aging. There are probably many reasons for this, but there is one that I have been particularly close to so it nags at me.

The Church has been around since Jesus commissioned it 2000 years ago. It has survived through prosperity and hardship. In fact, it has seemed to be strongest and most vital when things around it seem the worst, and the forces marshalled against it seem the strongest.

In spite of that, we have this insane idea that our best strategy is to model ourselves after institutions that are notoriously transient, that come and go—things like businesses and governments.

I think budgets and structures and strategies and programs are more about self-preservation than they are about building the kingdom. But they have become our kingdom language.

Jesus talks of a different approach. He says things like:

"Unless a kernel of wheat falls to the ground and dies..."

"Anyone who loves their life will lose it...."

Paul said,
"For I am already being poured out like a drink offering...."

"but God has chosen the foolish things of the world to shame the wise,"

Are these things not true?

I don't see pouring itself out, or forfeiting its life as identifying themes in the church these days. There are parts of the world where that's still true, but not here. I'm convicted about my contribution to that.

Good stewardship is currently defined as holding on to what we have. It's not always been that way.
