The Exchange

July's Summer Celebration is in for a treat with The Exchange!

Born in the quiet Pacific Northwest town of Kingston, Washington, The Exchange is a pop-rock band consisting of brothers Britt and Jack Espinosa, and Tyler Mays. Lately, the group is host to an ever widening audience as they bring their electrifying concert experience and upbeat outlook to cities across the western U.S.

From self-booked national tours and major festival slots to weekly spins across radio networks like

The Effect and K-Life, The Exchange has already accomplished a variety of feats as an independent artist. Still, the group is known for their down-to-earth attitude and for being highly personal with their fans. For The Exchange, it is long-time tradition for each band member to spend time with the audience after concerts. "Since the beginning" says Britt Espinosa, "we've wanted to be that band that we wish our favorite bands were to us. Even if it means getting four hours of sleep before a long drive, the period of time after a show is critical because it gives us a chance to connect with fans on a level that simply isn't possible on CD."

The Exchange initially formed to perform at a local church event in 2010. Soon after, they cut their debut EP "Show Me How to Love" with producer Neil Young (Needtobreathe, Third Day). Fusing elements of rock, pop punk, and praise music into an energetic package, the 2011 release would go on to sell 7,000+ copies in two years. See www.theexchangerock.com.

Prayer Summit June 15

FACILITATOR, Pastor Dennis Fuqua
International Renewal Ministries

Monday, June 15, 2015

Hoodview Church of God, Woodburn, OR

The Church Extension Commission invites you to a Prayer Summit with the specific purpose of discovering God's preferred direction in the area of Church Planting.

Facilitating the summit is Dennis Fuqua, Executive Director of International Renewal Ministries from Vancouver, Washington. Dennis has led prayer summits throughout the world and has been greatly used of God to call folks to the most critical aspect of our ministry, the call to prayer.

District pastors are encouraged to attend the prayer summit. Others with a burden for church planting, currently involved in a church plant or anyone with plans to be involved in one, are also encouraged to attend.

The Prayer Summit takes place Monday, June 15, at Hoodview Church of God in Woodburn, Oregon. To keep costs down, area attendees will travel to and from Woodburn, and housing arrangements are available for those coming from a distance.

Be in prayer for God's appointed number to attend, and personally invite a pastoral friend or whoever the Lord lays on your heart. There is no better way for us to undertake the work of the kingdom of God as an Association, than to bathe our activity in prayer.

“. . . And the Lord added to their number day by day those who were being saved" (Acts 2:47)

CHOG Convention 2015: Online Streaming of GA, Wednesday Evening Worship

By Carl Stagner

Can't make it to Church of God Convention this year? We've got good news! The convention planning committee, elected by the General Assembly in 2014, determined early on that they wanted to offer a taste of Church of God Convention to persons who simply could not make it to Oklahoma City in 2015. Based on the rich content and special guests scheduled for Wednesday evening's worship session, the planning committee came to the conclusion that Wednesday evening's experience would be the most encouraging for online participation. Church of God Ministries is pleased to offer free live streaming of the Wednesday evening worship session (June 24, 7:00 PM CDT), and free live streaming of all General Assembly sessions.

Wednesday evening's free opportunity to watch a live worship session will provide you with just a taste of the inspirational worship, compelling stories, dynamic preaching, and the physical expression of unity emblematic of the Church of God Convention. The joy of Church of God Convention is not meant to be experienced alone, however. Why not share with others the preaching of Francis Chan, the towering soprano voice of Sandi Patty, and the powerhouse tenor Larnelle Harris—all scheduled for Wednesday evening's session?

Here are five ideas to make your live streaming experience both meaningful and memorable:

- Wednesday Prayer Meeting/Bible Study. Probably the most common evening for midweek prayer meetings and Bible studies is Wednesday. Why not suspend normal activities for a one-time convention screening with your small group? Remember, the session is scheduled for 7:00 to 9:00 PM CDT. Make it interactive—use #BeBold2015 on Facebook and Twitter.
- Special Church-wide Screening. Whether or not your church holds regular midweek services, you can plan on inviting the entire congregation to a special evening service where the Church of God Convention is broadcast from Oklahoma City into your worship center or sanctuary.
- Local Church of God Unity Rally. Perhaps there are multiple Church of God congregations in your area. They may have others who can't attend the convention this year, but would love to watch one of the sessions. Some of these individuals may not have Internet access in their home. Plan a special local Church of God unity rally, and before and after the event, introduce visiting congregations, pray for the worship service about to commence, and sing a few worship songs together.
- Soul Food Banquet. Consider a potluck or pitch-in dinner to precede a live convention-watching event. Encourage others to gather for food that will feed the body and the soul.
- Family & Friends Worship Night. Round up a group of alumni from your Church of God college or university, or bring together friends and members of your own family—anyone who might be interested or curious! Grab the popcorn and the soft drinks, and be prepared for a blessing from God.

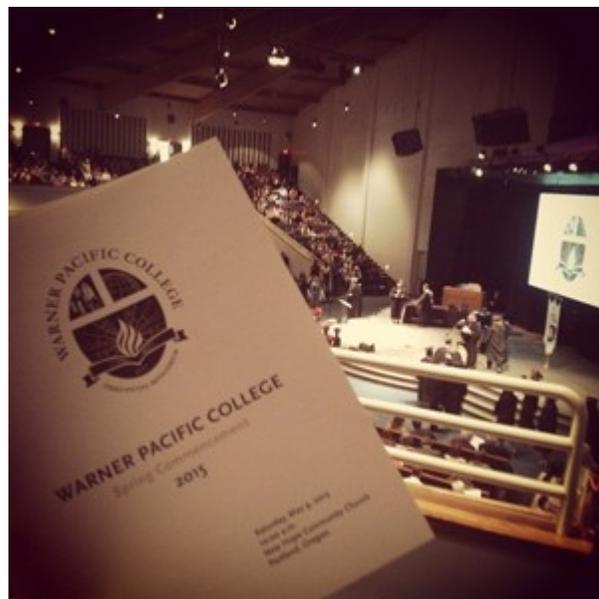

Local church ministry depends on attendance and active involvement of those who attend. Likewise, Church of God Ministries strongly encourages brothers and sisters from across the movement to gather together in one place at one time to worship together, interact with one another, and be actively involved in the direction of the movement. Unlike the atmosphere of a studio broadcast on television or over the Internet, the Church of God Convention functions as designed when the Church of God comes together in-person as a physical expression of the unity we proclaim. As we seek to increase General Assembly participation, we also pour the brunt of our energies into producing an experience especially with the in-person attendee in mind. For those who cannot attend this year, we pray that the General Assembly sessions, in addition to Wednesday evening's live-streamed session, will bless you and encourage you to attend in the future. Thank you for your understanding and support of this goal. Jesus is the subject!

Graduation! WPC Class of 2015

Warner Pacific congratulated 237 students as they received their diplomas earlier this May. We are blessed with a graduating class that not only achieved academic excellence; they've forged in their hearts a true sense of service for this community. <http://www.warnerpacific.edu/2015-spring-graduation/>

Warner Pacific celebrated achievements of Heald College Portland

Just days before almost 100 Heald College students in Portland were to celebrate achieving their academic dream of obtaining a college degree, they were hit with the news that Heald was closed and the graduation ceremony was cancelled. Warner Pacific College recognized the need for graduating Heald students to have some opportunity for celebration and decided to reach out to plan a graduation party for those students who were left with no public acknowledgment of their accomplishments. <http://www.warnerpacific.edu/wp-hosts-heald-college-grad-reception-may-1/>

Social Entrepreneurship program presents first cash awards for Capstone Projects

I can't wait to get started with the team this fall." http://www.wpcknights.com/news/2015/4/29/MSOC_0429151025.aspx?path=msoc

Facilities Update

By Mel Neu

Pacific Building Systems has secured a sand blaster and a painter to repaint the multipurpose building and just need eight to ten consecutive days of dry weather. We are trusting the Lord to provide that, so they can get the job done as soon as possible before camps start.

The State water representatives will conduct their final test on the water system shortly.

We look forward to a good season of camp and activities at Camp White Branch. We appreciate your prayer support.

It is time to start thinking about Senior High Camp at Camp White Branch again.

The dates for senior High Camp will be August 3-8 and the event will be co-directed by Billy Effingham, Teresa Hellstrom, Boston Jackson, and Cody Meyer.

We would love to know as soon as possible what leaders or adults will be at camp during the week.

Senior Moments

By Ruth Bissett

To the seniors of Oregon and Southwest Washington: Greetings in the Name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ!

I would like to share some thoughts with you from the recent senior retreat at Cannon Beach Conference Center sponsored by the Vancouver

Church of God. I was privileged to attend again this year. For those of you who have never attended this retreat, I would encourage you to plan on next year. It is in April although the dates haven't been confirmed yet. Every year there is an outstanding speaker and the fellowship and food are fabulous. Just ask anyone who was there. This year the speaker was Dr. Steve Rennick, pastor of Church at the Crossings in Indianapolis, Indiana. I will be sharing from that retreat.

The text Steve used for one of the sessions was Matthew 1 starting at verse 1. For those of you who are familiar with the Bible, you will realize that this passage goes into detail of the lineage of Jesus. Probably few of us have heard a sermon on this passage. As we know, the lineage of Jesus has some who we possibly wouldn't choose as our ancestors. Steve shared about his lineage. He came from an unchurched family, but he came to know the Lord because of a friend who invited him to camp. His friend then invited him to youth group so he went mostly for the girls and the fun times. During the Bible study time at the table, led by an old lady, he would turn his chair around so as to have his back to the group. He was so disruptive that the teacher asked the pastor for help in how to deal with him. The pastor's way to deal with him was for the pastor and the teacher to get down on their knees and pray at the altar for 30 minutes every time before the Bible study. And today, Steve is a pastor and has a doctorate. Steve's brother is a career military man; a relative is a very successful and well-known businessman in his hometown; his uncle is the town drunk.

How can God's view of people change our view of people? So, Steve asked, "Who are your people?" We are all human. You and I need to vacate the judgment seat. What if we give our family mercy and grace; mercy for our past and grace for our future? Family is never going to receive God's grace until they experience our mercy and grace. We need to be a force to be deployed in a garden to be tended. We need to be the people our family wants to become. Set an example.

*"Little things done with great love
can change the world." Mother Teresa*

Make plans to come to Summer Celebration, July 26-29. On Monday and Tuesday at 3:30, Gale Hency will lead us in a study on heaven. Also on Wednesday, July 29, at 4:30 we will have a "Heavenly Event" to include dinner and a program. Who knows...Abraham or Peter may even be there. I think we may even see some angels. (If possible, wear white). Tickets can be purchased when you register online at www.orwacog.org for Summer Celebration.
