

Leslie Duclo lives in Hillsboro with her husband Gary. They have a daughter Bethany. While they do not have any grandchildren they do have a grand horse, two dogs, two cats a turtle with an attitude and a beautiful conure. Thankfully only the dogs come to visit on occasion with Beth.

Leslie has attended Aloha Church of God since she was a junior in high school except for the three years that she worshiped with the First Church of God in Juneau Alaska. It was while she was in Alaska that she began to love WCG now Christian Women Connection. As she looks back with fond memories she realizes what an important part CWC has played in her life. The connections she made with those women and the things they taught her, have been invaluable as she faced the defeats and triumphs of the last forty-five years. Leslie has been very active throughout her life teaching Sunday school, leading bible studies, serving others in the food pantry and as the woman's group leader in Celebrate Recovery. She served as State President of WCG and continues to serve as secretary to CWC.

Leslie continues to work part time as a dental hygienist and is contemplating what she will do during the rest of her life.

Angellee Kloppman resides in the woods of Rainier, Oregon. She has been married to Dan, a logger by trade for 24 years. They have two sons, Daniel-19 and Noah-14. She does secretarial work for their logging business and is worship coordinator at their church, Rainier Church of God.

Angellee really missed not having the women's retreat at CWB last fall due to the fire. But, Praise be to God! That we will be together soon this year!
