

SPEAKER, Rich LaMar & Family

Rich was born in Spokane, Washington, but has lived almost his whole life in the state of Oregon. He grew up in Salem, and was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran church. He gave his heart and life to the Lord in his junior year of high school, and sensed an immediate call into ministry. Following graduation he attended Warner Pacific College, Portland Community College and Southern Oregon State College, graduating with a BS in Education and a Masters in Religion.

During his young adult years, he taught in both public and private schools for 5 years, and managed at several restaurants. He first began work in ministry in 1985, serving on a community missions team at Mt. Scott Church of God, and later as an adult Sunday School teacher at the River Street Church of God. He went on to serve as youth pastor for the Ashland Church of God, the Lynchwood Church of God, and the Gales Creek Community Church of God.

Then in 1996, Rich became the senior pastor at Gales Creek, where he remained until 2005. For the past 15 years, Rich has pastored the College Park Church in North Bend, Oregon, with his wife Tina (Becker), whose Church of God heritage goes back almost 80 years. Tina, in addition, is a licensed counselor working on the Mobile Crisis Team with Coos Health and Wellness.

Rich and Tina have been married for 37 years, and have 5 adult children, and 13 amazingly fun grandchildren, most of whom also live in the Coos Bay area and are also active in the church. Their home is located outside of town on half an acre, where they also raise about 20 chickens. Living on the coast, not far from the beach and bay, Rich loves to go camping, crabbing, clamming, fishing, boating, hunting, hiking, and beach exploring.
