Jim Lyon—Speaker
(Executive Director of the CHOG & Innovative Communicator)

Association of the Churches of God in Oregon/SW Washington
715 S River Street, Newberg, OR 97132 | 503-393-3510

Jim Lyon grew up in Seattle, where he served as an Associate and then Lead Pastor of the Fairview Church (1977-1991). In 1991, he moved to Anderson, Indiana, to become Senior Pastor of the Madison Park Church of God.

After 22 years at Madison Park, he accepted the invitation to become General Director of Church of God Ministries, based in Anderson, IN. He provides leadership for the Church of God at home and networks with the Church of God in 90 countries around the world.

Lyon studied at Seattle Pacific University and the Univ of WA Law School, before taking a post in Seattle with NW Airlines. Always fascinated by politics and the public interest, he has worked in many civic and church-related fields, including representing NW Seattle as member of the State House of Representatives, serving as Community Hospital Anderson Board Chair, and Global Wesleyan Alliance President.

It is the Christian ministry that ultimately owns his heart. It is the conviction that Jesus is at work in the world, redeeming and transforming us, that has molded his life and vocation more than any other. Articulate pastor, teacher, and motivational speaker, he has been the host of the weekly English radio program 'ViewPoint' since 1996 and now anchors the 'All That To Say' podcast (seen and heard on world-wide platforms online and on YouTube). Lyon is also the author of two books: Go Ahead and Jesus B.

Lyon and his wife, Maureen, married in 1978 and have four sons and seven grandchildren. He enjoys spending time with his family, jogging, traveling, and Haagen Dazs. He loves politics, current events, and biographies. When asked about his Achilles' heel, he is certain to reply, "chocolate ice cream."
